February 18, 2026: On the Proof I Asked and Received

I asked that the government prove that it is operating legitimately - just once - and instead, it proves to me - each and every day - 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, for several years now - that it operates as a unified criminal conspiracy.

I repeat myself: I asked that the government prove once that it was legitimate and it chooses to prove daily that it is criminal.

Let that sink into your understanding for a bit and then understand why sirens sound off around my home when I read the following news story in the morning:
